EPIC Advisors, Inc. Announces Two New Employees

Rochester, NY- EPIC Advisors, Inc. has added two more employees to their growing workforce, Laurie Lown and Lisa Thorne.

Lown has 10 years of experience in 401(k) recordkeeping and joins EPIC as a senior recordkeeping system administrator. In her new role she will assist with the management, coordination and processing of the department's workflow. Previously she was an account manager with First Niagara where she worked with clients to make sure their plans ran smoothly. Lown is a SUNY Morrisville graduate and lives in Conesus

Thorne is a qualified 401(k) administrator (QKA) and will take on the role of technical plan services manager. Her responsibilities will be to oversee the management of the compliance, balance forward and plan document departments to ensure client satisfaction, service delivery and retention. She will also review and consult on plan issues with team members and other departments.

Thorne has 14 years of experience. She worked as a supervisor at Ascensus in Minnesota; a manager of operations at Walker Benefits in Pennsylvania and as a supervisor at R.L. Billings & Co. in Iowa and Minnesota. She graduated from Clarion University of Pennsylvania. Thorne has her ASPPA designation and received her QKA in 2001. She lives in Rochester with her husband, and is originally from New Wilmington, Pennsylvania.
